Nairobi (Kenya), January 20th to 25th, 2007

Dear

The Organizing Committee of the WSF 2007 is honored to invite you to participate at the World Social Forum event to be held in Nairobi, Kenya. The aim of the Forum is to provide an OPEN space for individuals, civil society organizations and social movements from around the world to make the best possible impact of their activities, campaigns and struggles.

This year's Calendar events have been organized as follows:

20 th Jan. 2007	Opening Ceremony
21 st Jan. 2007	First Day (self organized and coorganized activities)
22 nd Jan. 2007	Second Day (self organized and co organized activities)
23 rd Jan. 2007	Third Day (self organized and co organized activities)
24 th Jan. 2007	Fourth Day (planning for actions during 2007 and 2008)
25 th Jan. 2007	Closing Ceremony

Please note that the fourth day will focus on planning common actions to be implemented during the rest of the year and the following year. For instance, we advise you to begin to explore possible partnerships that would connect your activities with those of other organizations based on common future actions. This could then provide a basis for organizing a joint activity for the fourth day.

We invite you to join us for this challenging event and also invite your organization to register its own events, including workshops, seminars, hearings, processions, cultural expressions etc. and/or speakers. Please know that only organizations can register activities for the WSF2007. This can be done through the online workspace tool available at <http://www.wsfprocess.net>

All individuals wishing to participate in the Forum are advised to process their entry visa applications from any Kenyan diplomatic representation or British Embassy in their respective countries. We urge you to visit the WSF2007 website to confirm your country visa requirements and procedures.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Nairobi from January 20th to 25th 2007.

In solidarity,

Prof. Edward Oyugi
For the Organizing Committee WSF2007

PS. The invitation letter is for Visa purposes only. The Organizing Committee will not be responsible for participants travel or stay in Kenya.
